INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

INTRODUCTION

During the period between December 10, 2020, and December 15, 2021, persons identified as, but not limited to, the defendants named in this Indictment operated in and out of the Southern District of Texas to distribute cocaine, methamphetamine, heroin, fentanyl, and marijuana which had been smuggled into the United States from Mexico. Agents with the Drug Enforcement Administration seized a total of 158 kilograms of cocaine, 142 kilograms of methamphetamine, six kilograms of heroin, 18 kilograms of fentanyl, and 526 kilograms of marijuana. The leader of this Transnational Criminal Organization, JAVIER OSCAR SOLIS-GARCIA, was a source of drugs smuggled from Miguel Aleman, Tamaulipas, Mexico into the United States and subsequently distributed in the Southern District of Texas and elsewhere throughout the United States by the defendants identified in this Indictment. The cocaine, methamphetamine, heroin, fentanyl, and marijuana were distributed throughout Galveston and Houston, Texas, to Louisiana, Alabama, and other areas. The allegations in this Indictment focus on the drug trafficking and money laundering activities conducted by JAVIER OSCAR SOLIS-GARCIA through the other defendants, all of which operated under the overall control of the GULF CARTEL.
